

Sometimes we can't remember all of God's Commandments, or we aren't sure if we are obeying or following God's laws. The best thing we can do at times like this is ask yourself: WHAT WOULD JESUS DO? Once we know what Jesus would do, we should do the same thing! Using this rule, answer these questions.

1. You didn't study for a big test, and you know you need to pass this test. Do you cheat by copying off your neighbor?
2. Your best friend wants you to come over for a while, but your brother or sister wants you to help them with their homework. What do you do?
3. Your brother wants to borrow your toy, but you know that last time you lent it to him, he broke it. Do you lend it to him?
4. You have a letter sent home from your teacher. What do you do with it?
5. It is Sunday, and you don't want to go to Mass. What do you do?
6. You hurt your sister's feeling by calling her names. What do you do?
7. You see a small toy at a store that you don't have enough money for. What do you do?
