

Publication of Student Work, Photographs and Parent Consent

Students may have their names, photographs, texts, artwork, video, audio, or other derivative works published in the school and elsewhere. This means that your son/daughter's name will be available to the general public. Permission to do so must be obtained from the parents of the student under 18 years of age or from the student if 18 years of age or more.

Student acknowledgement and signature:

I have read the Policy on the Acceptable Use of Information technologies and understand the rules concerning use of Internet and school computer facilities, more particularly for this section, the importance of respecting other users, and agree to abide by them.
